(First Night:) The Loneliness

Alone here
In the darkness
Looking through window
At this empty streets
No one in sight

Outside
Cold, winter wind [unreadable]
My [unreadable]
Still
No one in sight

I provoke death
Going empty streets
I see something
Light in darkness

It was Something
But not someone
It crashed into me

I'm in the endless darkness now
Still
No one in sight

...but my own shadow?
